Dear Friends

I recently upgraded my digital camera (for those into photography, I am now running a Nikon D5100 with a 35mm 1.8 lens), and to test it out, I took it on a walk around Uplyme. Photography enables me to look afresh at the world; the delicate petals on the dog rose, wild honeysuckle or sweet pea; the unfurling ferns; the view through gate and gap in a stone wall. Photography slows me down and forces me to be still. Only when I stop can I truly see the world around me.

The same is true in our spiritual lives. We live life at such a frenetic pace, and it seems that those who are retired are often busier than those in full-time employment! If we wish to hear God, to know his presence with us, and to feel close to him, then the first thing we need to do is stop. That doesn't mean taking time out to read a book, weed the garden, or even go for a walk. Stopping means stopping.

Do try this at 5-minute exercise at home. Find a place that you can be alone and quiet. Sit comfortably with your back straight. Release the tension in your neck and head, and then all of your body. Listen to the sounds around you, first the distant ones, then the nearer ones. Wait quietly on God; trust him; let yourself go into his hands. You might like to say quietly to yourself the name 'Jesus' or 'Lord' to the rhythm of your breathing. Let God's peace and calm fill you. For it is only when we stop that we allow the Creator of the universe to speak.

May you, at this time of abundant summer life, know the peace of God in your own life.

Yours in Christ

Gavin

From the Editor

Welcome to this July edition of the Parish News!

As I write this, we have just had the Village Fete and despite the weather trying to halt things, a good afternoon was had by a host of people, and just to round of a good day I won a raffle prize!! Not something that happens often I can tell you. Paula has sent in a report which you can find on page 21.

Nigel Balls gardening tips on page 23 are full of good ideas about conserving the moisture in the soil (not that it's a problem at the moment!) and it was great to see the Help 4 Heroes day raised over £1500 for a worthy cause.

Many of you will know of the fund raising to help send Sam Nunn to Germany for the treatment he desperately needs. Talking with his Mum at the Fete, he is in good spirits and heads for his treatment on 25th June. We all wish him the best of luck, and he is in our thoughts and prayers.

The Parish News has it's uses, as I heard that a family who no longer live in Uplyme, have the news sent to them in the North of England every month. They saw the appeal and have bought a branch on "The Tree of Life"! They also always send in a donation to the magazine to help it's costs.

If you enjoy the magazine and feel you could help with the costs, any donation would be most helpful.

Enjoy July..... Ed

What NOT to do before you go on holiday

Criminals just love Twitter and Facebook. Now they can locate unattended homes so much more easily - often within seconds of people posting comments about being on holiday on these social networking websites.

Thieves once had it hard - having to wander about neighbourhoods, peering over hedges, bribing milkmen, looking for empty houses. Now it is so much simpler: they stay at home and surf the internet - and can track down your address from a one-line posting within 60 seconds, according to researchers. Thieves look for messages such as 'packing my cases' and 'just landed' with a smiley face, only hours after the sender's location was given as an airport.

How do they do it? A check on the family name and, for instance, the name of their child's school, cross referenced with an online address database, shows the location of the home. The study, by Co-operative Travel, goes on to warn people that their children are the worst offenders, as 51 per cent of young people tell their all their friends about the forthcoming holiday....

News From The Pub.

Firstly, Steve and I would like to say a huge Thank You for the response we have had since last month when I shared with you our efforts to raise money to help Sam.

We have been overwhelmed by your kindness and as I write this, the branches which have been bought on Sam's Tree has raised over £5000. This is a tremendous amount and I know Sam and his family are so grateful for your generosity. We are of course continuing in our efforts to reach our target of £10000 please let us know if you would like to help.

Our annual Beer Festival is creeping up on is fast. This year it will be on Saturday 16th and Sunday 17th July, we will be having music and food on the Saturday evening. On Sunday afternoon Rose and Tracey have organised some stalls, majorettes, music and cream teas, all profits from the afternoon will be used to buy more branches on Sam's Tree so do please come and enjoy the afternoon with the whole family. We will end the beer festival with live music on the Sunday evening.

As you will have noticed our Summer hanging baskets are up and the pots in the garden are filled, lets hope the display will be as good as last year, we are eagerly awaiting the 'return for the summer' of our student university staff and I think the last one home has to paint the fences!!

Our Staff are all in the middle of their exams, and we wish them all the very best in this stressful time. We will lose Richard ,Jack and Peter this summer when they start their university lives. It has been lovely having Abi back for the past few months before she leaves for Thailand and Australia in August, Steve and I will miss them all.

Amanda and Stuart are getting married on July 15th, all their friends at the Pub wish them a long and very happy life together and we are looking forward to sharing their special day with food music and merriment at the Pub.

Poor Bronny has recently undergone an operation, I am pleased to say she is now on the mend, I hope Steve will be as concerned about me if I ever need my sick bed!!!

Running a village Pub is becoming increasingly more difficult in this economic climate and we are very grateful to everyone who continues to support our efforts .

Well that's it for this month, big thanks as always to all our friendly and hard working staff.

Kind Regards and Best Wishes

Wendy

MOTHERS UNION

THE MOTHERS' UNION

The Mothers' Union Chief Executive, Reg Bailey, has been asked by David Cameron to head up a campaign against the sexualisation of children.

This we are privileged to do and it is our project for the year, entitled 'BYE BUY CHILDHOOD'.

The Mothers' Union wishes to raise awareness amongst parents and children about their consumer habits, as we believe that children should be valued as children, not consumers.

We will be challenging retailers and advertisers who sell and advertise inappropriately to children, lobbying our political representatives to prohibit the 'sex sells' approach aimed at children under 16 and lobbying political representatives to ensure that children under 16 are not exposed to the marketing and display of sexualised products.

Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club (U&LRCC) - 125th Anniversary

At time of writing this article we have had an up and down season for both 1st and 2nd XI sides. Some weeks we have encouraging wins with some high scores and impressive bowling and others we don't like to talk about! We struggle on. The good news is that we have some extremely good youngsters coming through the system which looks good for the future. The joint venture with Woodroffe School is paying off and doing wonders to promote cricket across the town and the village. The youngsters enjoy their cricket and play in the West Dorset leagues for U11, U134 and U15.

Sales of our 125th Anniversary print featured in last month's Parish News are going well and if you haven't got yours yet then contact Paul and he will arrange to drop one off to you.

We have now started organising our special King George Candles event in partnership with Candles on the Cobb, the Lyme Regis based charity which raises money for youth and other local causes. The event on 4th September, will be a 40 over cricket game starting at 13.00 followed, at 20.00, by the lighting of over 2000 candles around the George V Playing Field in Uplyme. The Candles on the Cobb committee have decided that all proceeds from selling the Candles will be donated to the Sam Nunn appeal.

Another special event not to be missed is on Friday 29 July at 18.00, a twenty over game against the Lifeboat men, in aid of RNLI Lifeboat week. There will be Mark's world famous (well, in Uplyme!) chilli, hot dogs and a bar. Lasts year's event was great fun and we hope to continue where we left off.

Axminster and District Lions Club

Dear Uplyme Residents

LIONS CHARITY SWIMATHON

Flamingo Pool on Saturday October 8th from 5.30pm – 8.30pm.

Help your organisation or favourite charity to raise much needed funds without the worry of organising an event – just collect sponsors and the Lions do the rest

Any sponsor money would be split as follows:

50% to your organisation or chosen charity

25% to Flamingo Pool – an invaluable Axminster charity

25% to Lions Charities

Any swimmer would then be helping their chosen organisation, the local community pool and others in need locally.

Each swimmer may swim a maximum of 20 lengths.

Swimmers can be sponsored for as little as a couple of strokes with armbands. Non swimmers will be identified and will remain in their depth in an outside lane where they can easily be monitored by the life guards.

One swimmer or many swimmers may represent their organisation as appropriate Lions will provide a copy of all the necessary paperwork including letters to parents, a small number of sponsor forms, posters and detailed procedures. Each swimmer will receive a certificate of achievement and be part of a big community event.

A member of the Lions Club would be delighted to come and talk to you or your organisation about it and answer any questions or feel free to phone Anne for further information. This could help many individuals and organisations who are having difficulties fund raising. If you start collecting sponsors now you could raise a lot! Get the children on the job in the summer holidays!

Yours sincerely

Brownies*

Since Easter the girls have been working on the 'Out & About badge, which includes, the country code, water safety code, being safe in the dark, how to prepare for a hike and compass work.

We have also welcomed, Abigail Greenslade, Lauren Taylor and Imogen Winter, to the pack.

This term we' re planning an evening with Axminster guides, a pirate BBQ, our usual visit to sing for the residents of Pinhay House, and a trip to Winbourne Model Town to continue with some map work.

I would like to thank all those who have helped with Brownies this year, without additional help the unit would not be so successful.

Save save save

There's a new species out there: YUFTIEs. They are Young, Ultra-Forward-Thinking Savers who have appeared out of the storm clouds of the recession. They are in their mid to late twenties, responsible, serious and ambitious, focussed on achieving their life goals. Oh - and in the meantime, says Barclays, who did the research, they are saving almost a fifth of their salaries - £258 - a month. Nearly a quarter of them have already purchased their first home.

Royal British Legion Women's Section

Our meetings in April and May included speakers: We marvelled at pensioner Joyce West's "Tall Ship Adventure" – not for the faint-hearted of any age!; and Don foster, a descendant of the founder of a children's charity in the Philippines, gave an interesting account of her experiences during World War II, hidden from the occupying Japanese, and of the growth of the charity worldwide.

We were favoured with a glorious afternoon for our Mystery Tour in June, when after shopping in the morning at the Cider Press Centre in Dartington we enjoyed splendid views over Dartmoor on the road to Widecombe. The coach-load of about 40 members and friends were very grateful to Pat Day for organising this lovely day.

On July 4th we shall again be in the Village Hall for our "Garden Meeting", to be joined by members from neighbouring branches.

Rock School?

Heard it mentioned.

Happens every year

Thought....doesn't mean much to me

Got curious

Offered to help

Got blown away.....

Fifty young people from all over the South West gathered at a school in Exeter during half term.

They brought along an assortment of guitars – drums – voices.

Some had been several times before – for some it was the first time.

There was an atmosphere of calm and camaraderie amid the very, very loud music.

Lily on guitar and Bethany on drums.

Old friendships re-kindled and new friendships forged.

Our Youth Minister Irve in full flow encouraging the young people "not to be afraid to be yourself" and getting the very best out of the youngsters as they composed, had fun, practiced and then recorded their music onto a CD. At the end of the three days and nights a performance for the parents rounded off an inspiring confidence building time – for some it had been a life changing experience.

Sue Wells

Harrie Sowerby

Went to Thailand with the OMF (a Christian Mission Agency) at the beginning of January and spent a couple of months helping at one of the Mission houses in Lop Buri.

After a thirteen hour flight she arrived in Bangkok and took a taxi to her first port of call. She says that the first three weeks were a bit of a jumble and she found it extremely hard in all sorts of ways.

Firstly the language - Harrie did not speak any Thai, secondly she had been sent to a Mission House with only two Thai girls who did not know very much English, and thirdly she became ill with food poisoning. She became very disheartened and had doubts about her purpose for being there.

But all that changed when she became involved with teaching English in a secondary school to thirteen to nineteen year old Thai girls and meeting other young people from the Netherlands, NZ, Australia and Germany. She took her guitar into class and taught the songs, one being "He's got the whole world in his hand" explaining the meaning of the words as she went along.

Harriet felt that she had reached out to a nineteen year old Thai girl, "Mas", who became interested in the bible and wanted to know more and was fascinated to hear Harriet explain some of messages in the bible as a result she joined in baking classes, went on outings and attended worship and prayer. Harriet really felt she had made a difference to Mas's life and felt blessed to have met her and been able to work one to one with her.

The most difficult part of the time in Thailand was adjusting to a very different culture and some of the best bits were the fellowship with the other people there and in particular with Mas.

A rewarding time and one she will remember for a long while.

Congratulations Harrie for gaining a place at Newcastle University to develop her artistic talents, which will sit very well with her parents who have recently moved to Yorkshire.

OUT AND ABOUT WITH JOHN PENNINGTON

I've just been wandering around my vast .2 of an acre estate looking at the woe-ful state of my vegetables. It's just not been warm enough recently, especially at night time and there has not been enough rain either. I find it very hard to believe its been the warmest spring on record (April was warm for sure, but its gone down hill from then on). What is looking good though is the lavender in our garden. I really like the smell of their flowers and cant resist running my fingers through a bush and releasing the scent. When we are in our cottage in Provence in summer, there is a lavender distillery near by. If we are lucky and they are harvesting lavender whilst we are visiting, the subtle smell of their flowers drifts over the entire village from the smoke that is released from the distillery.

Lavender (Lavandula in Latin) are a genus of 39 species of flowering plants in the mint family. So common are they that the plant has a colour named after the flower. Lavender is a versatile flower that does far more than grace the flower-beds of gardens in Uplyme and the rest of Europe. It can be eaten (popular these days in posh restaurants), makes great honey and its essential oil has many uses. Studies have also shown the flower can have beneficial effect on sleep quality. The essential oil is anti-bacterial and is an anti-inflammatory. It was used during the first world war to treat wounded soldiers and to disinfect floors in hospitals. Even today in Rosans - the village where we have our cottage - many locals still clean their floors with lavender water!

And there's more! According to folk wisdom, lavender has many other uses. Infusions of lavender soothe and heal insect bites and burns. Bunches of lavender repel insects. If applied to the temples, lavender oil soothes headaches. In pillows, lavender seeds and flowers aid sleep and relaxation. Essential oil of lavender heals acne when used diluted 1:10 with water, or witch hazel. So, readers, next time you pass a lavender plant, take a deep sniff and marvel at this wonderful flowers many other talents.

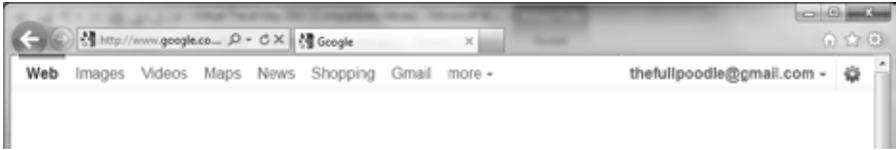

Until next time....

FREE WILL by The Full Poodle - 443819

But is Will totally innocent? Especially as we are often upgraded against our Will which tends to leave us all a bit tetchy & inclined to fire at Will...

If you are running Vista or Windows 7, and you use Internet Explorer as your web browser, it is likely that you have recently been upgraded to version 9. The Poodle insists that Internet Explorer 9 is a huge improvement on earlier versions but many people are confused by the new look with no visible menu bar or favourites ... never mind the weird, floaty, transparent top bar which seems detached from the rest of the page.

To restore the Menu Bar (File, Edit, View, etc), RIGHT click an open space in the 'floaty' bar to get a mini-menu. Select "Menu bar" and you've got it back. From the menu, you can now access printing, favourites & all the other usual suspects.

Alternatively to carry out functions like printing or viewing favourites, use the icons in the top right hand corner just below the Min/Max/Close buttons.

Home page (House) Favourites (Star) Tools (click on this to display menu) (Cog wheel)

Printing is under the "Tools" icon as shown opposite - along with other possible actions.

However ... a note to users who are still on XP: you will not be able to upgrade to IE9 but must remain with IE8. So, as the Poodle points out: no free Will for XP.

A PLEA FOR SPREE!

The SW Spree 2011 weekend between Friday 15 and Sunday 17 July is fast approaching with plenty of young people and leaders from Uplyme already signed up for what promises to be a weekend of fun guaranteed. All of the usual activities are being rolled out with the additional treat of kayaking. What makes this annual weekend such a resounding success is the non-stop action packed programme, with the exception of the usual Friday night BBQ, although I am reliably informed that marshmallows toast very well on a calor gas cooker! Life under canvas never looked so good.

There is however a problem in respect of the funding - parents are asked to contribute £40 + £15 for transport and an optional £7.50 for kayaking but since the cost of the South West Youth Ministry entrance fee has risen to £33 we are now having to cater on just £3.50 per day per person.

This is quite a challenge as you can imagine and we have to be more creative than ever in the planning of menus and procurement of ingredients. This year we are taking a gas fridge and water heater, the fuel for these have also to be found from the £7 per head food cost. We are therefore seeking gifts towards the cost of these items and would be happy for individuals to sponsor a particular component our exhaustive list. If you are able to help in any way with the budgeting for these essential resources than please contact either Karen Yelland or me directly so that we can deliver the most imaginative and healthy way of feeding the youth and leaders of Uplyme Church at this brilliant event.

TAKING THE PLUNGE.....!

A baptismal service was being held outside on a Sunday afternoon down by a river in a rural southern state of America. The keen young minister noticed that a very drunken local man was blearily watching proceedings. He called out: "What about you? Are you ready to find Jesus?"

The drunk looked startled, but responded: "Yes sir, I am."

And so the minister decided to baptize him, there and then. He led him into the river, and dunked him under the water, and pulled him to his feet. "Well, have you found Jesus?"

"No, I didn't!" said the drunk.

The minister then dunked him again. "Now brother, have you found Jesus?"

"No, I did not!" protested the drunk.

Disgusted, the young minister held the man under for at least 30 seconds and demanded again: "For goodness sake, why haven't you found Jesus yet?!"

The old drunk wiped his eyes and gasped: "Well, are you sure this is where he fell in?"

1st Lym Valley Scout Troop

What's the point of waking up at 6 am for a 12 year old? Well today, the 7th June, was the day when I would visit the palace of Westminster. So we boarded the train off to London Waterloo, the 3 hours journey to London went by pretty quick with all the conversation. Kit Kats and coke was what we needed for a good breakfast! So when we got to Waterloo we were faced with our first challenge of the day; finding out how to get to the Science Museum on the London underground! Luckily we had time and after 5 minutes of debating and a bit of arguing, we decided where to go and we got there. After the Science Museum we headed off to Westminster for lunch. Sitting down on a lawn right outside Westminster where this photo was taken, I tuck into a chicken tikka roll with a Twix what could be better!

So after lunch we made our way off to Westminster; we got through security, we reached Westminster hall. We got a quick tour of the Hall then proceeded into the reception area where we were greeted and met by the MP of Tiverton who let us view the House of Lords and the House Commons in session which was enjoyable. After all this we were led into the Speaker stateroom where we were greeted by food for our afternoon tea. The Speaker of the House of Commons arrived a bit late, but he made a defiant speech, which we enjoyed listening to. Afterwards we headed back to Waterloo where we missed our 6pm train but we got onto the 7pm train that took us back to Axminster where we arrived at 10 o'clock. That was a 16-hour day that tired me but I heavily enjoyed it

SUMMER HOLIDAYS, BACK 1ST WEEK IN SEPTEMBER

Helen Tweedale

.....is the mastermind behind the Holiday Club at Uplyme Village Hall.

“How did that happen?” I asked and she says that six years ago she was asked to lead a group and then took on more responsibility the year after and has been doing it ever since.

She is married to Keith and they have two children Charlotte and Keir as well as a menagerie of pets – two dogs, two cats, three guinea pigs, three rats, six chickens and tropical fish – she says “No more please!”

Helen and Keith moved to Lyme Regis six years ago from Rochdale as they were concerned about the level of crime and because it is close enough to Keith's work in Exeter. They almost bought a house in Seaton but fell in love with Lyme. Helen is a part time teacher at a school in Chard and is also involved in Junior Church on a Sunday morning and has somehow gained the title of JC Leader, she is not sure how that happened.

Helen is certainly not one for sitting about doing nothing she dislikes unfairness, disorganisation and poor customer service. She is involved with the campaign to save Lyme Regis Library, being taxi driver for her children, she enjoys swimming, reading craft and baking, frequently making her own cupcakes and designing fun birthday cakes. I have recently tasted a piece of sour dough cake called Horace, where you make the dough, split it into four and share three pieces with others – it was delicious. Helen likes to keep in touch with people and has just discovered the joys of Facebook. She loves shopping for bargains, especially when she can find things for other people too.

Helen is full of enthusiasm and has superb organisational skills and she is able to motivate many people of all ages to help run the Holiday Club.

Thank you Helen for bringing fun and frolics to the village hall for so many children to enjoy.

Sue Wells

Uplyme Village Fete

Was a huge success despite the weather. Luckily the rain held off for the procession led by John Pennington in his vintage Bentley, carrying Phil Street, Lyme town crier, and the fete princesses Rose Trafford and Ella Hawkins.

Karizma majorettes performance finished in the pouring rain and everyone was hugely impressed with their new routine and stoicism.

Over £1,500 was taken on the day, netting about £1,100 for the Uplyme Village Hall. 15 local organisations had stalls to raise funds for their own groups.

The organisers would like to thank the following for sponsoring the entertainment and fancy dress:

Keeley Windows
Pinhay House
The Old Black Dog
Uplyme Stores
Talbot Arms
Travis Perkins

Huge thanks to all the helpers who made the afternoon such a success.

Celtic Rune of Hospitality

I saw a stranger at yester'een.
I put food in the eating place,
drink in the drinking place
music in the listening place, and in the sacred name of
 The Trinity
He blessed myself and my house,
my cattle and my dear ones,
and the lark said in her song
"often, often, often goes the Christ in the strangers guise."

GARDENING TIPS FROM NIGEL BALL

Help for Heroes Garden and cream tea afternoon raised £1511. Thank you, to all that helped and donated to this event.

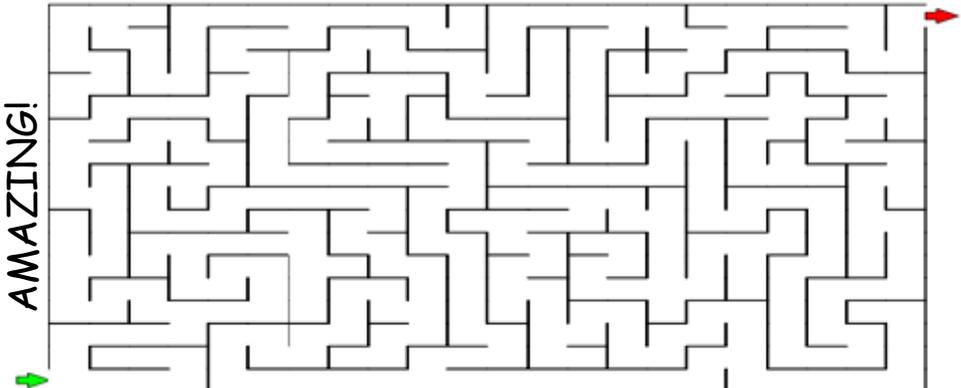

With the dry weather still with us as I write these notes I cannot talk enough about mulch and compost. Compost is so useful to adding to the soil to retain moisture also feeding your plants so get making more for next years use. Another good moisture retainer is farm yard manure, you should aim have a cycle going where you are using rotted manure which is at least a year old. Perhaps you could share a load with a neighbour, before you order make sure that you ask if the manure is pure and not contaminated with spray which is sprayed on some of the corn fields, as this affects the straw which farmers use to bed down there animals. The effects this will have on your plants if you use contaminated manure there will be lack of vigour in your plants and stunted growth so beware! Mulch is great to help reduce watering, there are many mulches you can use for this purpose from wood chippings to manure to carpet and ground cover fabric. What ever you use just remember what your requirements are and budget for it, as this exercise can work out to be expensive if you have a large garden. Well enough about Manure and Mulch lets get on to tips and jobs around the garden.

1. If you have room for more water butts buy now there are bargains to be had.
2. Check on plant supports and tie up plants around the garden.
3. Dead head plants after flowering this helps prolong flowering.
4. Avoid heavy pruning of plants shrubs and trees in summer pencil in what needs pruning in your note book and address this in the autumn.
5. Make sure you keep your garden tools sharp and clean this maintains good clean cuts to your plants and helps prevent infection.
6. Share your produce with others, if you have a glut of produce do a swap enjoy each others garden.
7. Visit gardens in our surrounding area, get ideas and ask the owners for names of plants this will help your plant knowledge.

Happy times in your garden

God Bless

Green Light for major investment in Devon Broadband!

I am pleased to be able to confirm that Devon and Somerset are to receive a £30m share of £50m funding. Our bid was one of only three to get the go ahead from the government's Broadband Delivery UK (BDUK) Unit.

Councils have pledged an additional £22 million investment towards the project. Central and local government funds will be augmented by private sector funding, to give a likely investment of £100million in our broadband network.

Broadband is becoming as essential to homes and businesses as electricity and telephone lines. It is now only a matter of time before we have access to the connection speeds more commonly associated with towns and cities.

Business leaders have praised the lead given by the local authorities and said investment will deliver a £750 million boost to the local economy and could create 50,000 new jobs in Devon and Somerset. Superfast broadband for our rural businesses will give a level playing field with urban counterparts.

The Devon & Somerset plan is to make sure that everyone has access to basic broadband by 2015, with at least 85% of premises having access to superfast broadband speeds, and 100% by 2020.

It is particularly important that Devon and Somerset secure superfast broadband as problems experienced by Trinity Ward residents are mirrored in many other areas of the two counties:

- Over 75,000 businesses and households have no or very slow access.
- 90% of businesses say poor connectivity threatens their survival and growth.
- 70% of residents say it unfairly limits access to health services, education resources, job opportunities and prevents home-working.
- We are a 10,000 square kilometre black hole in the Government's ambition to create the best network in Europe.
- It helps to overcome our strategic road and rail weaknesses and distance to markets.
- The economic growth areas of our urban centres have poor connectivity.
- We're being left behind: businesses are relocating to Cornwall where superfast broadband is being rolled out with EU Convergence Funding.
- It prevents public services from providing faster, efficient services via the web.
- The private sector alone will not deliver superfast broadband to 318,908 businesses and homes 38% of businesses and homes.
- Individual traders and small businesses need support to comply with regulations such as completing VAT returns online.

As the newly appointed EDDC Cabinet member responsible for Rural Broadband, the major success of a joint bid by Devon and Somerset could not have come at a better time for East Devon. There are significant areas of Trinity and East Devon which have little or no broadband service. A major improvement in our rural broadband service is fundamental to the economic and environmental future of our area. New EDDC Rural Broadband Champion, Cllr Phil Skinner and the rest of our EDDC team look forward to working with DCC, and local groups, to ensure that the rural areas of East Devon receive the best possible service - as soon as possible."

East Devon District Council announces new Cabinet.

NEW era has started with a new Leader, a new Chairman and top team, and a fresh outlook serving East Devon, with a promise of greater transparency.

Paul Diviani (Yarty) is the new leader, with Andrew Moulding (Axminster Town) Deputy Leader.

new faces on the Council's Cabinet, with Portfolios aligned closely to the new officer structure. Deputy Leader Andrew Moulding picks up Strategic Development and Partnership, while Ray Bloxham (Raleigh) takes on the newly titled Corporate Business portfolio.

Trinity is represented on the EDDC Cabinet. I have been appointed to lead the Corporate Services portfolio. This mirrors the responsibilities of the EDDC Chief Executive, and Heads of ICT, Human Resources and Legal. Responsibilities include Communications & ICT Strategy, Electronic Government, Democratic Services, Legal, Councillor Development, Human Resources & Rural Broadband.

Economy Portfolio is led by Graham Godbeer (Coly Valley). David Cox (Ottery Town) picks up responsibility for Finance. Iain Chubb (Newbridges) is Environment Portfolio Holder, with deputy Chris Wale (Sidmouth Rural). Jill Elson (Exmouth Halsdon) retains similar responsibilities as Sustainable Homes and Communities, Stephanie Jones (Seaton) is her deputy.

In his acceptance speech, Paul Diviani said: "Some call it Safe, Clean and Green – I would add Seen".

"Safe comes through good design at the planning stage, to working with the Police, Fire and Rescue and all the other services, with particular emphasis on the vulnerable, of whatever age".

"Clean is the public realm – paths and pavements on which we travel and which we see every day; the quality of our parks and pleasure grounds; efficient and convenient services, such as waste recycling and collection".

"Green Two-thirds of our District is nationally designated as Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, which makes East Devon such a fabulous place to live, work and play., we also have the internationally designated World Heritage Site – the Jurassic Coast".

"Seen is about perception and reality and is all about effective communication. All too often we read that EDDC doesn't listen, doesn't care, sits in an ivory tower – the list goes on. We need to enable better lines of communication. The cynical views of the last Government – decide, consult, and do it all anyway – is not my approach".

I am looking forward to serving both Trinity and East Devon by bringing the open Communications style we have enjoyed in Trinity to wider East Devon as part of the EDDC Cabinet

Notes from the monthly Council meeting, 8th June 2011

Audit: the Clerk was pleased to report that the internal audit was successfully concluded and the papers will soon be on their way to the Audit Commission for external audit – all part of the process to make sure that your precept money is spent wisely and legally.

Footpaths: Cllr Whiting reported that the new bridge and diversion by Middle Mill are underway, which should greatly improve this well-used path after the damage that happened last winter.

Police: The only reported crime last month was the theft of 2 padlocks.

Planning: Applications dealt with by Planning Committee

Lynwood Lime Kiln Lane Construction of ground and first floor extensions to include raising of the roof and dormer windows (demolition of existing garage and conservatory). We object to this application.

Culver Woodhouse Lane Installation of ground mounted solar photovoltaic system (16 panels). We support this application.

Apartment 1 Rohaise Court Lyme Road Replacement window including reduction to opening, replacement front door and combustion ventilation (ground floor works). We support this application, subject to all works being approved by the Listed Buildings Officer.

Hartgrove Hill Farm Trinity Hill Road Change of use and alterations to agricultural building to workshop/office and storage. We support this application. Applications dealt with at the meeting by the Council Roseacre Red Lane Construction of replacement garage. The Parish Council supports this application. Any subsequent proposed change of use must be the subject of a new application.

Applications granted by EDDC

Lymewood Retirement Home Lyme Road Installation of platform lift and replacement second floor window.

Sunnymead Yawl Hill Lane Extension to form entrance porch.

Brookfield Wadley Hill Construction of single storey extension.

Readers can look at www.uplymeparishcouncil.org for full details of these decisions, which are published in the Minutes section after approval by the Council, and also displayed on the PC noticeboards.

Highway matters: C Cllr Knight has obtained funding for four more salt bins for the parish, and Cllr Forrester will be visiting the eight sites where bins have been requested to see which are most suitable. The lengthsman has visited, and done some rather half-hearted strimming by signs and culverts etc. – This will be followed up.

Flood relief by the tennis courts: Cllr Mason reported that Mr Cook from EDDC visited the site and agrees that an overflow pipe and trench to take away excessive storm water would be acceptable, and has checked that the Environment Agency will not object. He is looking into funding sources for the work.

Localism: there have been some informal meetings between clerks and councillors of Lyme Regis, Charmouth, and Uplyme, to see how common interests of these communities can best be served. Although we are administratively in different counties, practically we are closer to our Dorset neighbours than adjoining parishes in Devon, and it is hoped that closer links can be developed to everyone's advantage.

Parish Plan: Uplyme's plan was drawn up in 2005, but has not been monitored effectively since, although the design statement has been helpful for planning. The Council will be reviewing it at the July meeting (13th) to see which parts may need updating, so if you want to make suggestions, please bring them to the meeting or let the Clerk have your ideas. Copies of the plan can be obtained from Cllr Whiting.

Meeting times: Council meetings will now start at 7:15, and be adjourned immediately after apologies for absence for the first part of the Open Forum, where anyone may ask questions or put points to the Council. This change means that we don't have to sit twiddling our thumbs for 15 minutes if no-one wishes to speak in the forum!

A new First Dorset Credit Union Service Point for Lyme Regis

LymeNet at St. Michael's Business Centre in Lyme Regis has set up a new service point for the First Dorset Credit Union (FDCU). The service point is operated by volunteers.

The Credit Union provides an ethical banking service for the community run by the community; members can save money with the Credit Union and also apply for low cost loans from £50. It is a safer and cheaper alternative to high street banking and doorstep lenders in rural Dorset, regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

A variety of accounts are available including a Young Saver account to encourage young people to save and a very popular Christmas account where your savings are totally safe and are sent to you automatically in November. Standing orders can be used to pay into these accounts regularly – so if you can't make a Tuesday morning you can still bank with us.

To become a member currently you would need to either live, work or go to school in Lyme Regis; we are hoping that individuals not fulfilling these conditions, but who live in Uplyme, will soon be able to join also – but this is subject to FDCU board approval.

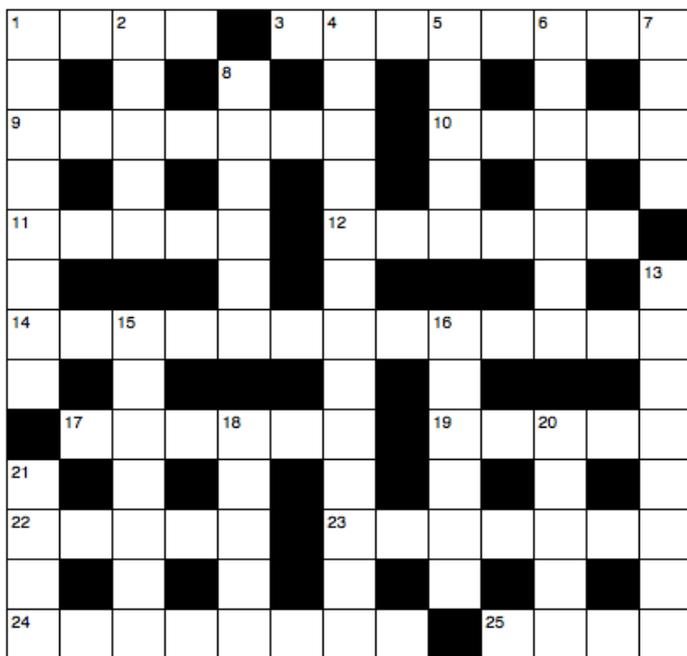

The Service Point will be open between 10 and 12 on a Tuesday morning.

For further information please call in on a Tuesday morning or contact Heather Prior on 01297 445021.
